From representing clients in serious injury cases, wrongful death cases, class actions, and other lawsuits including medical malpractice, product liability, and more, Gary and his team of attorneys get YOU justice. At Iscoe Law Firm, our Florida personal injury attorney team helps people – men and women just like you – fight against insurance companies and other liable parties.

After an injury or the death of a loved one, you have rights, and it's our job to help you exercise those rights. We stand with you, investigating the accident, documenting the seriousness of your injuries, consulting with experts, and advocating on your behalf to eliminate your stress so you can focus on healing. We build strong cases and see them through to settlement or trial to ensure you get fair compensation for the injuries that impact your life.

“I pride myself on getting my clients back to their daily lives with the necessary compensation to do so.”

Car accident claims are about money

Most car accidents, fortunately, do not result in hideous life-altering injuries. Ultimately, then, what they care about is recovering sufficient money to cover the losses caused by the accident.

Truck accidents are not the same as car accidents

They usually result in different kinds of accidents, and they typically cause different types of injuries. Victims should consult experienced counsel before making any decisions or settlements in a truck accident case.

What is a personal injury accident?

A personal injury accident is any accidental injury suffered by an individual and caused by the negligence or recklessness of another.
